STATE CONTROLLER KATHLEEN CONNELL ISSUES FUNDS FOR RESTORATION OF COLTON-CARNEGIE PUBLIC LIBRARY

Sacramento, CA December 27, 2001 – State Controller Kathleen Connell today released $50,000 to the City of Colton to be used for the restoration of the City's Carnegie Public Library.

"Libraries are an integral part of the lives of local communities," stated Controller Connell. "A restoration project ensures that library services will be available for future generations."

Specifically, the funds will be used toward window replacement and restoration, including frames and glass. Landscape improvements and sewer line laterals for existing restrooms will also be included.

These funds were allocated pursuant to the current Budget Act.
